Dear Community Friend,

It's that time of the year when the planning stages for the Annual Harvest Festival begin. The City of Ansonia's Cultural Commission would like to invite you to participate in their 11th Annual Harvest Festival to be held on Saturday, October 4, 2014, with a rain date of October 11th. The event will take place all along Main Street from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Once again, there will be a contest for "Scarecrows on Main Street", which merchants and organizations are being encouraged to participate in. We are also planning a pumpkin carving contest involving the local schools. The categories will be the same as last year and the judging will be conducted through the "Valley Arts Council." A classic, antique and import car show will be featured with Jay Auscavitch serving as chairman. A small carnival will also take place on upper and lower Main Street.

Last year, we had approximately 100 booths and hopefully we'll increase that number for this year's event. Live music and entertainment will be provided in three areas and a storyteller will also be featured in the area of Veteran's Park next to City Hall.

The cost for a space is $50.00 for all vendors. The committee is seeking sponsors to help defray the expense for music and trophies. This event is sponsored by the Ansonia Cultural Commission and the City of Ansonia.

If you would like to reserve a space, please mail the enclosed contract to Ansonia City Hall, 253 Main Street, Ansonia, CT 06401. Attention: Harvest Festival. If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact Judy Nicolari 203-231-3603 or email jnicolari@ansoniacct.org or jlarnic@comcast.net.

Sincerely,

Judy Nicolari

P.S. We will notify you of your space number one week prior to the event. In the event there is a chance of threatening weather and we have to move to the rain date, you will be notified via email by Friday at 4:00 p.m. or you can call the number above.

See you on Main Street!
